

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours.

convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

NO ORANGES LIKE FLORIDA'S.

A recent issue of the New York Press has the following to say regarding oranges on the market, and incidentally pays a very high compliment to the Florida fruit:

"Let us call a halt on the orange growers. Are they breeding and propagating for kind? Oranges now in the markets have rinds three-eighths of an inch thick. On the fruit stands they are beautiful to look at—big, fat, solid, luscious. When you get them home and start to eat one you find inside a miserable little kernel of edible pulp."

"Not always edible, either. Too often white tasteless, juiceless and corky, fit only to feed to the hens or for school boys to spit each other with, a hollow mockery that we keep on buying and buying in a lingering hope, like the lottery ticket holder, that this time we are going to draw."

"Time was when all Northern and Eastern markets were filled for fully six months of the year with real oranges—ones that had size and substance and weight, skin as fair and flawless and smooth as a sweet girl's complexion, of a yellow that vied with the buttercups, the marguerites and the sunbeams—not the admittance that which comes of a run in between dogs' blood and ochre and is fit only to color the patient's jostling pyramids, such as guano or vanity, and speaking of juice, there was a juice fit for the gods. A juice as ambered and sweet and finely flavored and plentiful as any nectar that Hebe or Ganymede ever poured—a juice impounded so generously and heavily in the medium of delicate pulp that it fairly begged to be let out, like the milk in the Jersey cow's udder fresh from a mid-June clover patch."

"But all that was 'Platanus' was consil—'not so very long ago, either, only back before an all-wise providence saw fit to send two freezes into Florida in one season. Before the winter of 1894-95 there were Florida oranges—Indian River and Mandarin and a long line of illustrious varieties that put all the Mediterranean and California and West Indian to shame and the fading memories of which now make our mouths water occasionally."

"Shall we never leave them again? Have the get-rich-quick turpentineers so denuded the forests of the Southeast that Boravia long since had an east job of it wiping out the frost line in Florida and thus rendered orange growing too risky a business in the peninsula? Time was when she shipped six or seven million boxes a year of the 'queen of the citrus family.' Nowadays it's only by accident that we ever see one in the New York retail market—and then we have to wait till the ghost walks in order to get the price of it."

Gained Forty Pounds in Thirty Days. For several months our younger brother had been troubled with indigestion. He tried several remedies but got no benefit from them. We purchased some of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and he commenced taking them. Inside of thirty days he had gained forty pounds in weight. He is now fully recovered. We have a good trade on the Tablets—Holley Bros., merchants, Long Branch, Mo. For sale by all druggists.

COLONNADES IN NEW HANDS.

The handsome Colonnades Hotel at Seabreeze will be run this year under the management of E. H. Fumme and A. B. Kimball, who have taken the hotel on a three-year lease. Messrs. Fumme and Kimball are proprietors of the Prescott Inn, at Swampscott, Mass., and the Aborn, at Magnolia, Mass., and are experienced hotel men.

Mr. Fumme states that extensive improvements will be made at the Colonnades, and that it will be renovated for the season, although the hotel is already in fine condition. Mr. Fumme says that the hotel will be run in the best style and will enter to the highest class of patronage.

For a stomachic physic take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Easy to take. Pleasant in effect. For sale by all druggists.

If you would be successful get into a business that you like.

Ran a Ten-Penny Nail Through His Hand. While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten-penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by all druggists.

A life not spent in doing good to others is not worth living.

Saved His Life. J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me once my lungs were entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief, two 50-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c, 50c, $1.00.

Cures Chills and Fever. G. W. Wirt, Nacogdoches, Tex., says: "His daughter had chills and fever for three years; he could not find anything that would help her until he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." Sold by J. M. Jones.

Suppose the printer in Orlando were to send off for groceries, clothing, shoes, etc., what would you think? But they do not, and every cent that they make is spent with our business men. We know of some people here who send away for their printing.—Orlando Sentinel-Reporter.

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it for it has helped me out many a time." Sold by all druggists.
